From Saturday September 24. to Tuesday September 27. 1715.

St. James's, September 26. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaſter; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Derby.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Steward, Jurats and Common-Council; and of the Clergy, Gentlemen, Freemen and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Faverſham in the County of Kent; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dorſet and Middleſex, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Common-Council, Freemen and other Inhabitants of the Town and Corporation of Deal in the County of Kent; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dorſet and Middleſex, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, Bayliffs, Burgeſſes, Miniſter, and other principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſſe in the County of Devon; preſented to his Majeſty by Joſ. Herne, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Nottingham, Preſident of the Council.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Hambourg, October 1. On Friday the 27th paſt in the Evening, a Courier arrived here from the Confederate Army, with Advice, that Vice-Admiral Seheſtedt had forced his Paſſage into the new Deep; and by Letters of the 29th juſt now arrived, we have the ſame News confirmed, with the following Particulars, viz. That Vice-Admiral Seheſtedt bore the Fire of ten Swediſh Frigates, which lay to defend the Entrance of the new Deep, till he had cauſed all the Veſſels under his Care to be towed through that Paſſage; which done, he attacked with his Ships of War thoſe ten Frigates, obliged ſeven of them to retire under the Cannon of the Fort of Ruden, and three to the Iſland of Rugen, and has cauſed them all to be blocked up in ſuch manner, that 'tis ſaid they cannot eſcape. The Kings of Denmark and Pruſſia were at Penamund, and ſaw the Action. Our Advices from Copenhagen of the 24th paſt, import, that Admiral Raab had received poſitive Orders to ſail with the Daniſh Fleet under his Command from the Bay of Kiog, and to take his Station on the Coaſt of Rugen; and we have an Account, that the ſaid Fleet is now actually between Jaſmond and Dornbuſch. 'Tis alſo adviſed from Copenhagen, that Admiral Norris with the Fleet under his Command was detained in the Sound by contrary Winds: And that on the 24th a French Frigate arrived, with the Perſian Ambaſſadour who was lately at the Court of France; 'twas ſaid he deſigned to proceed from Copenhagen to Petersbourg. We hear that a new Treaty has lately been ſigned between the Czar and the King of Denmark, whereby his Czariſh Majeſty obliges himſelf to aſſiſt the Northern Allies with 20000 Men, viz. 20 Battalions and 10 Squadrons, which are expected in Pomerania by the 8th of this Month.

Ratisbon, September 23. Since the Project of the Concluſion concerning Kehl and Philipsbourg has been communicated to the States, the Dyet has made no farther Progreſs in that Affair. Prince Lowenſtein ſtill continues at Vienna. The Elector of Cologne is arrived at Munich, and both Courts are gone into Mourning for the late King of France. That Elector has received Permiſſion from the Pope to keep the Biſhoprick of Ratisbon in his Hands to the firſt of January next. It is ſaid he intends to come and reſide here ſome time before his Reſignation; 'tis not doubted that he will be ſucceeded by a Prince of Bavaria, and ſome of the Chapter endeavour to have the Adminiſtration left in his Hands till the Prince be of Age.

Whitehall, September 26, 1715.

It is his Majeſty's Pleaſure that all the Half-Pay Officers now in South Britain belonging to the underwritten Regiments, do immediately repair to the ſeveral Places directed in the following Liſt, where they
